

Stephen Juelsgaard, D.V.M., J.D.

Stephen Juelsgaard, D.V.M., J.D.

Rio Grande Neurosciences, Inc.

Director

An executive officer of a Commercial Life Science Entity

Appointed by Lieutenant Governor

Stephen Juelsgaard is the former executive vice president, secretary and chief compliance officer of Genentech, Inc. In that role, Mr. Juelsgaard reported to Genentech's CEO, Art Levinson, and was responsible for Genentech's Corporate Law, Intellectual Property, Government Affairs (Federal and State), Human Resources, and Healthcare Compliance groups, as well as the Business Services group, which included Strategic Facilities Planning, Corporate Security, Business Continuity, and Environment, Health & Safety. He also chaired Genentech's Capital Governance Committee, which oversaw major capital expenditures at the company, and was a member of Genentech's executive committee, the most senior management committee at the company. He had oversight responsibility for more than 600 employees and an annual budget of approximately $250 million.

Juelsgaard joined Genentech in 1985 as corporate counsel and became senior corporate counsel in 1989. In 1992 he became vice president, Corporate Law and in 1994 was named general counsel, a role he served in through 2007. Juelsgaard was named secretary to the Board of Directors in 1997 and a senior vice president in 1998. In 2002, he was appointed executive vice president, in 2005 was named chief compliance officer, and in 2007 he became responsible for oversight of the Government Affairs group. Juelsgaard was the company's representative on the board of directors of the California Healthcare Institute from 2005 until 2009.

Prior to joining Genentech, Juelsgaard was an associate for three years with the law firm Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in Palo Alto, California. Prior to attending law school, Juelsgaard was engaged for three years in a private veterinary medical practice.

Juelsgaard currently teaches at the Stanford Law School and is a member of the Board of Directors of Ivivi Health Sciences LLC, a private medical device company.

Juelsgaard received his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degrees from Iowa State University in 1972 and a Masters Degree in Veterinary Clinical Sciences in 1975 from Iowa State University, and in 1982 he received a law degree from Stanford Law School.

Source URL: <https://www.cirm.ca.gov/board-and-meetings/stephen-juelsgaard-dvm-jd>